

Leaving a Legacy

SYCAMORE EDUCATORS DAY

November 7, 2015
Bayh College of Education
Indiana State University

Session III

1:00-1:45 p.m.

Room Presentation

103 Stretch Your Kids Using 1:1 and Enrichment

Chelle Hendershot, Greencastle Community School Corporation

This session will present strategies and materials to use when your students finish their work early. It will include iPad apps and suggestions for making an enrichment box.

107 Alternative Funding in Education for Today, Tomorrow, and the Future

Daniel A. Noel, North Putnam Community School Corporation, Andy Cooper and Bob McKinney, Johnson Mellow Solutions

Have you ever considered a new way of funding your educational programs? What about a solar farm? Do you want to provide an educational opportunity in one of the fastest growing industries in the nation?

203 Bird's Eye View: Teacher Candidates Research Education in Ireland and Indiana

Debra Knaebel, Bayh College of Education (faculty), Haley Albamonte, Joyce Lawrence, Amy Loveless, Amanda Lange, Shelby Cope, and Sabrina Rivera (students), Bayh College of Education

Teacher education candidates who traveled to Ireland, May 2015, will share unique impressions of how international travel shaped their thinking after researching difference between educational practices in Ireland and Indiana.

208 Developing a Senior Capstone Class: Oh the Places You'll Go!

Lucas P. Calhoun, Shoals Community School Corporation

The Senior Capstone Course helps our graduating seniors learn about the power and impact of the legacy they will create for themselves.

209A Influencing Teacher Education Beyond Public School Walls

Sandy Woolard, Della Thacker, and Sue Kiger, Bayh College of Education (faculty), Catrina Cimaroli, Alex Johnson, Joshua Mannix, Drew Neal, Kelsi Perrott, Rachel Poer, and Baden Pund (students), Bayh College of Education

This session demonstrates how involvement in the CHILL cross-curricular, cross-generational mentoring program facilitates wider collaboration in developing professional practices. Connections to supporting peer mentoring in high schools will be emphasized.

Doctoral Poster Session: Conceptual Models of Research and Scholarship

Steven Bair, Eric Brewer, Johnny Budd, Arthur Dumas, Jason Flener, Chase Huotari, Tricia Johnson, Christopher Kates, Katherine Kyler, Christina Larson, Stanley Law, Dustin LeMay, Matthew Maple, Amy McCabe, Sarah Pies, Janet Platt, Toni Stevenson, Chrystal Street, Crystal Thorpe, Sonia Walker, Bayh College of Education

Two cohorts of doctoral students from the Bayh College of Education will present conceptual models of their dissertation research in the south hallway during lunch. Models will reveal the influence of theory and knowledge from coursework on their scholarship.