

Session V • Friday, July 8 • 9:45 – 10:30 a.m.

Mentoring Young Teachers in the Classroom and Transitioning into DKG

Communications/Technology

Ryman Studio MNO

Presenters: Elizabeth Wood, SD; Dr. Rhonda Anderson, SD

Mentoring young teachers is a rewarding experience. This session will share ideas, experiences and proven methods in the classroom to enhance communication, support and promote active membership in DKG with today's Millennial teachers. The session covers professional connections, technological communication and mentor success.

Once Upon a Time...Storybook Leadership

Educational Excellence

Lincoln A

Presenters: Susan Doughty, VA; Anne Perdue, VA; Vicki Newburn, VA

Using children's literature, this workshop will highlight elements of leadership including overcoming mistakes, daring to be different, cooperation and teamwork, self-esteem, and attempting new things. These could be possible program ideas and inspiration for chapter meetings and events.

Panama's Next Generation Educators & Ethical Dynamics

Global Awareness

Lincoln D

Presenters: Dr. Kathleen Ramsey, TX; Dr. Barbara Baethe, TX

Participants will learn about Panamanian Students/Prospective Teachers who attend an Intensive English Program at North American University Language School to study English and take training in education for a semester. An exploration of educational and ethical perspectives shows students' passion for education and duty-driven ethics consistent with Panamanian culture.

R-E-S-P-E-C-T...Was Aretha Referring to the Classroom?

Educational Excellence

Ryman Studio L

Presenter: Wendy Stephens, AL

How does respect relate to classroom culture? Developed with secondary teachers in mind, this session will explore how the culture of the collaborative classroom affects student learning. Research-based practices and techniques will be presented that are designed to improve student focus (engagement), reduce problem behavior, and increase instruction time.

S'more Books!

Communications/Technology

Jackson F

Presenter: Deb Carrell, IN

Deb will share new and recent books published for preschool and elementary children, as well as young adults. She will present many genres and include both fiction and non-fiction. Current authors will be discussed. Participants will leave with a bibliography and ideas for both home and school will be given.

The "C" in EEC: Changing Global Awareness

Educational Excellence

Lincoln C

Presenters: International Educational Excellence

Committee

Impacting literacy and developing education worldwide come alive through global connections and teaming.

The New Three R's of Education: Rigor, Reasoning, and Relationships

Educational Excellence

Jackson AB

Presenter: Kelly Lomax, AL

Engaging, rigorous lessons centered on reasoning lead students to discover and own their learning. Participants will be introduced to Talents Unlimited, Inc., a critical and creative thinking framework that helps facilitate these collaborative conversations that change the classroom dynamic into one that supports the 21st century learner.