

Felix Bratslavsky

MBE Manager, Materials Management

Tampa General Hospital

Felix Bratslavsky joined Tampa General Hospital as the Minority Business Enterprise (MBE) Manager in 2013. He is currently responsible for the MBE Program, vendor relations, construction, procurement and strategic sourcing of medical and non-medical products and services, many of which were awarded to MBEs, all of which produced a direct savings impact for the Hospital.

Prior to this Mr. Bratslavsky was responsible for contracts, contract compliance, developing and implementing new programs for the Disadvantaged Minority/Disadvantaged Women Business Enterprise Department, coordinating and facilitating outreach events and performing disparity and utilization reports for the Hillsborough County Board of County Commissioners. Mr. Bratslavsky authored Hillsborough County's last Disparity Study; he was also a business consultant for the Small Business Development Center at the University of South Florida and the Hillsborough County Small Business Development Center.

Mr. Bratslavsky has served on numerous boards and committees, including: Chairman of the Minority/Small Business Multi-Jurisdictional Regional Task Force, Vice President of the West Coast Chapter Florida Minority Supplier Diversity Council, Board Member of the Florida Association of Minority Business Enterprise Officials (FAMBEO), Board Member of the Minority Enterprise Development Committee (MED Week) and Member of the NFL's Emerging Business Super Bowl Host Committee.
