

Kyle Blakeman is originally from Ohio and moved to St. Petersburg Florida in 2009. A graduate of Miami of Ohio with a Bachelor's Degree in Marketing, Kyle went in to the Banking industry soon after. Kyle believes leadership, in any industry, is the key ingredient to facilitating and driving production through employee engagement. Kyle is constantly working to consistently present the best banking professional he can on an everyday basis. Kyle's knowledge of financial solutions along with a unique approach to build rapport with the local customer base and prospects has been a consistent strength my peers have reflected throughout my career.

Kyle has spent over 10 years in the banking industry, previously working with Fifth Third Bank, Wells Fargo and now BMO Harris Bank. Kyle works with a diverse client base each and every day to insure their financials needs are met and they have a secure plan for the future. Kyle has worked with clients ranging from affluent business owners to opening a young child's first savings account. Kyle currently leads and manages the Brandon BMO Harris Banking Center in Brandon Florida.
